they tortured him,
they hung him from a bridge for four days.

JOURNALIST As Commander in Chief,
are you in control of and responsible for the military contractors in Iraq?

BUSH Umm... yes, I'm..
I am responsible in that ... the state department...

LAUGHTER

BUSH Help...

BUSH They protect people's lives and uh....

FEMALE STUDENT I was hoping your answer might be a little more specific ...

LAUGHTER

BUSH And uh, I appreciate the sacrifice and the service
the Blackwater employees have made.

FEMALE STUDENT Mister Rumsfeld answered that Iraq has its own domestic laws which he soon applied to those private military contractors:

However, Iraq is clearly not currently capable of enforcing its laws much less against,
you know, over our American military contractors.

I would submit to you that in this case ..
this is one case where privatization is not the solution ...

BUSH Mhm

FEMALE STUDENT And Mr. President,
how do you propose to bring private military contractors
under a system of law?

BUSH Yeah, I appreciate that very much.
I was not kidding.

LAUGHTER

BUSH I'll pick up the phone and say
"Mr. Secretary I've got an interesting question".
I really will.
I will call the Secretary and say: "Ron I have a very valuable question and what are we doing about it?!"
That's how I work:

that the Australian prime minister will describe such an action
as „moral blackmail“
and do you also know
that the sight
of your sewn-up mouth
will offend
the Australian tv-audience?
ok

JOURNALIST

Some of the words
that are commonly used to describe you guys,
at the risk of making you angry:
blond gorillas, cowboy attitude, reckless, arrogant,
aggressive, excessively aggressive.

So why is it so wrong that...
why is there this perception, do you think that exists about Blackwater?

You know when I,
when I was in Iraq when this incident happened
I spoke to a number of different operators and different private security firms and most of the time people said to me :
"Blackwater are more aggressive than us!"
Why do you think that is?!

I know you said the loss of innocent lives is a tragedy.
Do you regret it?
Do you wish it never happened?

People want to know from you,
from Blackwater, that you wish those people had not been killed.
Do you wish that innocent people didn't have to die
as a result of anything you are involved in?

ERIK PRINCE

It is absolutely not our wish that any innocent civilian should ever die.

JOURNALIST

Blackwater is a private army that was put together
by one of America's lesser known fundamentalist wing-nuts:
Erik Prince took millions of Dollars that Daddy left him,
he cut a deal with Dick Cheney
and was awarded the right to become America's new unofficial army.

ERIK PRINCE

I am an American working for America.

SHOTSJOURNALIST

This is a global private mercenary army
that has its own aircraft, its own tanks, its own ammunition stashes
that rival the Armies of many third world countries.

BLACKWATER TRAINER

Don't give up if you get shot.
don't just say I'm dead,
just finish the fucking drill alright.

JOURNALIST

Blackwater doesn't fall under the US Court Marshall Law when they break the law.
And they argue that they can't be sued or they can't be prosecuted
under traditional criminal and civil statutes in the US.

In other words:
They operate in the dark out of the reach of anybody's law.

A CAR FULL OF BLACKWATER GUYS

FEMALE VOICE

Drivers fucking have two hands on the wheel at all times

JOURNALIST

They do that by not investigating instances where there are people killed, by covering up killings and by allowing Shooters, that's what they call them, they call the security people, an interesting term, they call them Shooters

CALLCENTERgirl 10

you want to be advised?

We were in our headquarters our safe house,
when the attack started
and the attack was on our house.
At exactly 11:30 on orders
they dropped their signs and pulled out their AK47's

JOURNALIST Thomas says to survive there was only one thing to do.

BLACKWATER-MERCENARY

I grabbed my weapon and went right to the roof
Why did I go to the roof?
because the roof is where you can see people.
Bullet pierced right in front of my face.
I'd like to tell you that I was heroic
And that I stood my ground but I shivered my ground.
I was scared to death.

CALLCENTERgirl 13 nighttime

JEREMY SCAHILL

Well I think we are in the midst of the most radical privatization agenda in our Nation's history we of course see it in schools we see it in our health care system, in prisons and now we see it full blown in the war machine. What I ultimately see as the real threat here is that the system of ... the very existence of the Nation state I think is at stake here.

JOURNALIST

Why are you so convinced that this was not one of those cases your guys made a mistake?

ERIK PRINCE

I am not saying it's impossible to make a mistake I am saying: on the front end we do a very thorough job of finding the best of the best

These are true, proving professionals that come out of the US military that have a significant position of responsibility already Um, Um... So yes, it is a very tough job It requires the tightest of judgment It is possible to make a mistake

SOUND OF STEPS ON RUBBLE

THUNDER

JEREMY SCAHILL

You have companies now that have been funded with billions of dollars in public money using that money to build up the infrastructure of private armies. There are over 170 mercenary companies like Blackwater operating in Iraq right now that's almost as many nations as are registered at the UN. And I think this isn't just about Iraq it is also eluding the US treasury.

CALLCENTERgirl 17 as covering protection?
 ok
 survive a gas attack as a mercenary.

MUSIC

THUNDERSTORM and the sound of a BARREL-ORGAN

JEREMY SCAHILL Well, I was in New Orleans in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina and I think we saw a real window into the possible future.
 I was standing in a street corner
 in the French quarter on Bergen Street and I was talking to New York City police officers who had come down to help
 and this car speeds up next to us,
 no license plate,
 it was a compacted car
 and three massive guys get out of it and they have M4 assault rifles, bulletproof vests
 wearing kaki, brown sunglasses and baseball caps on and they come up and they say to the cops :
 "Where are the rest of the Blackwater guys?"
 They said that they were down there to confront criminals and stop looters

JOURNALIST Who called them in?

SCAHILL Well this is an interesting story.
 Erik Prince sent them in.
 There was no contract initially.
 But 180 Blackwater guys were sent into the Gulf.

JOURNALIST Prince's own decision.

SCAHILL

Well, so Prince sends them in.
Within a week Blackwater is given a contract from the Department of Homeland Security and Federal Protective Service to engage in security operations inside of New Orleans.

it was the aswan-dam
no
you only mentioned a dam
no
maybe you told my colleague
who wrote down your details.
no, definitely not!!

you know
the agency
doesn't care if the reason is personal or political!
no
I won't listen to you!

and if you don't respect our

the agency also cannot guarantee that the catastrophe will be bigger than that of new orleans!

but if you like
we can get you an expertise on your project
ok
you'd like that?
ok

BLACKWATER-MERCENARY

I have a lawyer, please go talk to him.

SNIPER

You're a fast mover
You know everyone says they are just
A bunch of gun-toten idiots out there
You know: looking to shoot somebody

Holy shit, look at them fuckers

BLACKWATER HEARING

SENATOR

Mr. Chairman
I'd like to ask Mister Prince about one of these employees whom he fired and ...
This was an employee
who got drunk on Christmas eve of 2006

SNIPERS

SENATOR

This particular man while he was drunk shot and killed
the guard to the Iraqi vice president and I'd like to ask you about his firing.
You fired this individual for handling a weapon
and for being intoxicated.
Is that right?

ERIK PRINCE

The men operate with a clear policy.
If there is to be any alcohol consumed
it's 8 hours between any time of consumption....

SENATOR

Was he fired or not?

ERIK PRINCE

Excuse me?

SENATOR

Was he fired?

ERIK PRINCE

Oh yes ma'am he was fired.

SENATOR

Have any charges been brought against him in the Iraqi Justice system?

ERIK PRINCE I don't believe in the Iraqi justice system
I do believe or I know we have referred over to the..

SNIPER Another car coming at ya in the blue Mercedes...
Yep was hit.

SENATOR Have any charges been brought against him
in the US military justice system?

ERIK PRINCE I don't know.

SNIPER ...was hit.
That's fuckin awesome!
Scare the shit outta ya?
Yeah! We didn't know...
we thought somebody was firing RPG or something at us.
We were secure up on the wall...

SENATOR Have any charges been brought against him
in the US civilian justice system?

ERIK PRINCE Well that would be handled by the Justice Department Ma'am, that's for them to answer, not me.

SENATOR Other than firing him,
has there been any sanction against him
by any government authority –

You mentioned you fined people for bad behavior.
Was he fined for killing the Iraqi guard?

ERIK PRINCE Yes he was

SENATOR How much was he fined?

ERIK PRINCE Multiple thousands of dollars.
I don't know the exact number.
I'll get you that answer.

SENATOR If he lived in America,
he would have been arrested and he would be facing criminal charges
If he was a member of our military he would be under our Court Marshall
But it appears to me that Blackwater has special rules.

SNIPER Ok, you see the road uh that goes straight out like that,
that road right there?
Yeah! Follow it straight out

CALLCENTERgirl 21

you have to say YES or NO or however you want to reply to my

 and that this woman apparently whether still alive or already dead was impaled
 through the vagina.

SHOTSNAOMI KLEIN

What the bush administration has constructed since September 11 is a privatized security state on the whole
 So the idea of homeland security being the primary mandate of the government and simultaneously
 thats this idea
 that the government will not perform any of these functions itself

SHOTSMERCENARY

If I see anyone I shoot him

NAOMI KLEIN

Yeah
 the core function
 of the state security evacuation in a disaster
 and...

MEN in a TANK

Here we go Baby.....

MERCENARY

Go, go, go, go

NAOMI KLEIN

I think what's frightening about it is the idea
 that these disasters become laboratories for these totally corporatized states
 I mean the green zone,
 I always had the feeling when I was in Iraq
 around the green Zone
 that I was seeing the future.

You know if we weren't careful.
This bubble,
this totally privatized bubble,
which is talked about
if it is an American control zone
it is actually a Halliburton zone.

MEN in a TANK

NAOMI KLEIN

And all of it is run by private contractors.
So you have this bubble of fully privatized functionality
I mean this is where it seems to be leading with this use
this massive transfer of public money
to build this shadow state:

That of the Blackwaters,
and the Bacchanals
and the Halliburtons.
So you know the state becomes frail

MERCENARY

We just got shot by an RPG, went right over our fuckin head

MALE VOICE

Throughout all that vast fear of conflict
 there was one band of fighting men who were everywhere known.

In their brief but extraordinary existence
 they won a unique reputation for daring to show an unfailing professionalism in combat.

Yet their courage was beyond dispute so too was the fear and loathing which they elicited even eventually among their own people.

And in the regular soldiers alongside whom they fought.
 In many of the most signal times of German arms
 they played a conspicuous role.

One far disproportioned to their numbers.
 In a long period of decline and retreat
 despite repeatedly sustaining appalling casualties their discipline remained unbroken their fighting order unimpaired.

Almost to the very end.

Subsequently they were burdened with the near exclusive blame for the blackest crimes of the Nazi regime and for all their high undoubted bravery
 they bear a reputation forever shrouded with infamy.

They were the Waffen SS.
